

Silver

Silver series products are constructed by sputtering thin layers of precious metals onto film. This results in a line of reflective films that provide high privacy and heat rejection while maintaining optical clarity.

Key Benefits

- Reflecting heat instead of absorbing it results in higher heat rejection and improved indoor comfort
- Increases occupant privacy while enhancing the building exterior
- High heat rejection and long warranty terms combine for attractive commercial payback times
- UV blockers protect people and property from damaging UV rays